

EMPATH SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Education Criteria:

Because many empaths are now "waking up" and realizing that we have a mission to do on Earth, these monies are intended to support the acquisition of any education that will help you do the following: :

- a) The education will help you be more effective at your current career
- b) The education will help you shift into a new career, now or sometime in the near future.

This education can take a broad variety of forms: in-person workshops, online workshops, university or college courses, personal development or growth seminars, etc.

Total Money Available: $1,000 in scholarship money will be available. Up to 3 scholarships may be awarded, depending on circumstances. A scholarship with a value of $240 will be available to the Empath Academy in November, 2011.

When will the winner(s) be announced? October 17, 2011. The winners will be chosen by a 3-person panel of judges.

When is the Money Available? Application monies will be available as of November 1, 2011 and may be used anytime before April 1, 2012. The money will be distributed directly to the school, individual, or provider who is providing the service. The monies will not be given to you directly. The provider must have a website.

Essay Instructions:

The essay is limited to 2 pages, double-spaced with standard 1 inch margins and 11 or 12 point font size. Handwritten essays will not be accepted. Priority will be given to those empaths with financial need. In your essay, please persuasively demonstrate how this education will help you in your career and how being an empath/sensitive person is relevant.

In the essay, please include the following:

- 1) Your financial need (keep this as brief and concise as possible).
- 2) Briefly describe the education you are seeking and for what reason you are seeking it.
- 3) The importance of this education to your career goals (this applies whether you are changing careers or whether you are seeking education to advance your current career). How will this education help you become more effective in your career?
- 4) Will the intended education help you advance or improve your skills and/or awareness as an empath or sensitive person? If so, how? (This can take a variety of forms. The education itself will lead to increased spiritual awareness, or increased energetic/body awareness, are just two examples).
- 5) How will you use your awareness & skills as an empath and/or sensitive person in your career? If you are already in your desired career, how are you currently using your empath awareness & skills?

Terms & Conditions: If you are chosen as one of the winners, you consent to allow Empath Connection and/or Michael Smith to contact you by phone for a short follow-up phone interview. Your voice may be recorded and used in future activities that will promote the scholarship (your voice & your comments about winning the scholarship may be edited into a YouTube video, or an audio clip on our website, for instance). You also agree to let us use your full name and location (country, city, state) in promotional activities. If you do not agree to these conditions, please do not apply. Please state "I consent to the terms" in your application email.

Application Deadline: October 1, 2011
