MUSIC CLUB TO HOLD AUDITIONS FOR NEW MEMBERS

Milwaukee, WI – Classically trained musicians (composers, instrumentalists, vocalists, pianists, and organists*) seeking opportunities for public performance are encouraged to audition for membership in the MacDowell Club of Milwaukee on Saturday morning, January 16th, 2010. The auditions will be held in the Music Department of Cardinal Stritch University, located at 6801 North Yates Road, in the Joan Steele Stein Center for Communications / Fine Arts. (*NOTE: Special arrangements will be made for organists.) All applications must be received by December 31st.

Requirements, application forms, detailed information and directions are available at macdowellclubmilwaukee.org or by contacting Dennis King at dwking@stritch.edu or 414-410-4349. Auditionees will be notified of their time slot in early January.

Currently celebrating its Centennial, the MacDowell Club presents its members in an annual series of free-to-the-public programs at various venues throughout the Greater Milwaukee Community during the regular concert season. Also, occasional Tea Concerts are held in private homes for Club members and their guests each spring and fall.
