RE-SCHEDULED CHAMBER MUSIC CONCERT

What: Free Chamber Music Concert
Where: First Unitarian Church, 1342 N. Astor (at Ogden Avenue)
When: 3 P.M. Sunday, 20 February 2011

Milwaukee, WI – Music for organ, strings, flutes and voice will take this concert from the depths of winter to the promise of spring at the next concert presented by members of the MacDowell Club of Milwaukee at 3 P.M. on Sunday afternoon, April 10th. Postponed because of the February 20th snowstorm, this free program focuses on the chamber music of Gabriel Faure, Jacques Ibert, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart; Sergei Rachmaninov and Richard Strauss, and will introduce a work by Gerard Bunk (1888-1958).

Club members representing all areas of Greater Milwaukee include flutists Linda Hartig (Waukesha), Carolyn Atwell and Ana de la Cuesta Gerlach (both of Bay View). Also taking the stage will be organist Sheri Masiakowski (Greendale) joined by violinists Benjamin Lux (Whitefish Bay) and Joan Rooney (Port Washington). Suzanne Pajunen (Wauwatosa) will be at the piano for mezzo-soprano Julie Maurer (South Milwaukee). Assisting on the program will be guest cellists Andrew Maslowski and Kirsti Pajunen, and violinist/violist Brandon Ward (all of Wauwatosa).

This concert is open to the public at no charge although donations to the Club's Scholarship Fund are always appreciated. In addition to street parking, space is available in the Lincoln School lot, one block west off of North Marshall Street.

Currently celebrating its 101st season, the MacDowell Club welcomes, supports and encourages musical accomplishment, presents its members in free programs at various venues throughout the Greater Milwaukee Community and invites the public to attend.
