

La Paz presents a personal account of the paths taken by many of today's immigrants.

"You never truly know someone until you've walked a mile in his shoes."

Alongside Bear, Tiger, Handsome, and Old Man, director Tommy Davis takes a 120 mile cross-desert journey that has been traveled innumerable times by nameless immigrants who – like these four young migrants from Michoacan, Mexico – all had the simple, American dream for a better future.

"...people who are too often classified simply as numbers needed their story told." -Writer, Producer & Director Tommy Davis

Mojados: Through the Night
 A Discussion on Immigration
 Facilitated by Dr. Carlos Parra of Southern Adventist University

BEST DOCUMENTARY

Arizona International
 Film Festival

GRAND PRIZE

San Antonio
 Underground Film
 Festival

AUDIENCE AWARD

Kansas International
 Film Festival

BEST DOCUMENTARY

Santa Fe Film Festival

AUDIENCE AWARD

South By Southwest
 Film Festival

The Hunter Museum of American Art
Thursday, October 15
5.30-7.45pm

*Museum café will be open with food and beverages for purchase during filming.

*Mention La Paz and get in free!
 Call 423.624.8414 for more information.

The mission of La Paz de Dios is to empower the Latino population to become engaged community members through advocacy, education and inclusion.

*Images taken from the Mojados website <http://www.mojadosmovie.com/>

