

Batch 2010! We need you to submit your write-ups. This will appear in the yearbook, so please take it seriously! It also counts as an English requirement, so it will be graded.

Format:

- 250 - 400 words ONLY
- May be written by you or by other people.
 If you write for yourself, write it in essay-form (e.g., 1st person). If you have other people write for you, it must be in 3rd person. CHOOSE ONLY ONE STYLE.*
- Maximum of four (4) people may contribute to your write-up.
 Please include the names of those who wrote, how you associate with them (e.g., "classmate in Diamond". If none, put 'Friend'), and what they wrote. See links below for examples.
- Strictly English or Filipino, no Taglish. If ever English or Filipino words must be used, please italicize them.
- Content must be descriptive, no messages or dedications. (e.g., "Maria! Kamusta ka na?", "Juan, when you read this 10 years from now..")
- Avoid the use of generic words such as "nice", "friendly", and "smart".
- Language must be socially acceptable (no text speak, no foul language), and as much as possible, grammatically correct.
- Content must be coherent.

WRITE-UPS DEEMED UNACCEPTABLE WILL BE REJECTED AND RETURNED FOR REVISION.

Sending Details:

- Each person is responsible for sending his own write-up, along with the data form.
- Email to pshsyearbook2010@gmail.com
- Deadline: Monday, October 26, 2009
- FORMAT:
 - Email Subject: Yearbook: BatchNumber[space]LastName[space]Initials
ex: Yearbook: 201 Seña JRL
 - File type: .doc (.docx and .odf files will not be read)
 - File name:
BatchNumber[space]LastName+Initials[space]WriteUp
ex: 201 SeñaJRL WriteUp

*Batch numbers will be posted.

If you do not submit your write-up on time, the yearbook editors will write it for you using a basic template (see separate post). So please submit as soon as possible!

Sincerely,
The Yearbook Editors

P.S.

For those of you interested in reading your first year write-ups (for use here, or if you're nostalgic), email pshsyearbook2010@gmail.com with the word Yearbook in the subject. Include name and second year section in the message.