

Monica O'Hara

Business Development Executive
Omaha & Lancaster County Territory

About Monica O'Hara

Monica is responsible for developing new business sales and expanding existing client relationships in Omaha and Lancaster County.

She is a successful grant writer and prior small business owner that brings experience from the retail, e-commerce and financial services industries. She also gained valuable hands-on customer service experience with two major corporations before joining The Growth Coach team.

Monica has completed a Bachelors degree in Liberal Studies from Thomas Edison State College and currently aims to finish a Masters degree in Business Administration. She holds a strong commitment to all business owners, managers and professionals. Serving other professionals and leaders contributes to her success with The Growth Coach.