

THE SPITEFUL

MARCH 2010

Metal Fest!

Hell-o!

March 27th is the time. The SPITEFUL will be playing at the 7th Moita Metal Fest. Promoted by Switchtense and Quinzena da Juventude this is an event you can't afford to miss.

March 26th the hostilities begin with Simbiose and Process of Guilt closing the night. On March 27th the Germans Dew-Scented will be headlining and a powerful arsenal of national bands will be rolling out all through the day, starting at 4PM, in the Sociedade Filarmónica Estrela Moitense.

For just 5 tanks (that's as cheap as it gets!!!) you'll be experiencing live some of the best acts Portugal has to offer and show the Germanic veterans we're not fooling around.

CONCERTS

March 27th 2010	19h00	Moita Metal Fest Moita	with Dew-Scented, Switchtense, Pussyvibes, Revolution Within,...
April 3rd 2010	22h00	Fábrica de Som Porto	with Coldfear

See you on the road.

OTHER NEWS:

Reservoir SPITEFUL

The SPITEFUL, along with seven other bands from Leiria are contributing to ECO's (a local cultural association) project "...for a handful of bands".

In response to ECO's invitation we composed a new song to be used as an alternative soundtrack for a film of our choice. We elected Reservoir Dogs. The Job is the name of that new song and its violent and heavy ambiance is supposed to serve as landscape to the heist scene on the film, which is never really revealed, although being the central element of all the action.

Keep checking our blog and myspace. Soon we'll be releasing this new song online. It's our latest work, so you'll be getting an hint on what The SPITEFUL will be sounding like in the near future.
